

Circle City Cougars Athlete Code of Conduct

Student-Athlete Agreement

As a Circle City Cougars student-athlete, I will. . .

- support that Circle City Cougars is founded on and guided by Christian principles as outlined in our Statement of Faith as we seek to provide an excellent, competitive high school homeschool volleyball program that helps girls become women of integrity and character who will lead, work hard, and practice good sportsmanship.
- participate by arriving early enough to be ready when the coach starts warm-ups, attending all volleyball activities except in cases of illness or emergency, and putting 100% effort into doing what the coach asks of me in both practices and games.
- recognize that I represent my family, team, and Circle City Cougars and that my level of effort demonstrates my commitment and respect for my coach and my teammates.
- support and encourage my team and coach by demonstrating integrity, character, leadership, hard work, strong relationships, and good sportsmanship, regardless of my playing time and our win-loss record.
- speak and act respectfully when I interact with players, parents, coaches, referees, spectators, and volunteers.
- respect host site facilities, leaving them in a condition as good as, or better than, I found them.
- allow for accountability and take responsibility for my actions when I fail to live up to these standards.

As a Circle City Cougars student-athlete, I recognize that not maintaining a Christian testimony nor following the guidelines above, whether on or off the court, may result in team discipline. I acknowledge that the list above is not all inclusive and other situations may arise that warrant discipline, up to and including dismissal from the team.
